

Nadine Langlois – Human Resources and Financial Administrator

Nadine Langlois started her professional career in 1968 in Toronto as a Director at Quality Records Limited, a well-known Canadian-owned distributor and manufacturer of international and domestic recording artists and musical talent. After meeting the post-secondary requirement for a designation as a Certified Human Resources Leader, Nadine focused her efforts in the area of Human Resources when she moved to Belleville in 1987 and joined the Belleville Police Service. Nadine also completed the Municipal Administration Program at Loyalist College and is a member of the Association of Municipal Clerks and Treasurers of Ontario.

Nadine has served as President of the Human Resources Professional Association Quinte Chapter, is currently a Board Member with Addictions and Mental Health Services Hastings and Prince Edward Counties as well as a Director of the Rotary Club of Belleville where she is the Chair of one of their busy committees and very involved in Club service in the community. Nadine holds an Executive position on the Ontario Senior Officers' Police Association, a leadership role she has carried for over ten years, representing Senior Police Officers in the Province of Ontario. She is also the President of the Belleville Police Senior Officers' Association and an active member of the Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police Human Resources Committee. She received a Certificate of Recognition from the Ontario Women in Law Enforcement in 2011 for her contributions and accomplishments in the community she serves and is the proud owner of a gold watch for over twenty-five years of service with the Belleville Police Service.

Nadine considers it a privilege and honour to support all the members of the Belleville Police Service in her Human Resources and Finance role.
